

Contents

About the Authors	iv
Overview of the seven volumes	v
From the Publishers	vi
Also by Analoly T. Fomenko	vii
Also by Gleb V. Nosovskiy	viii
Preface—By Leonid Sevastyanov, Ph.D., President of the World Union of Old Believers	3
Foreword	5
Chapter 1	Introduction. General considerations
1. Lack of vowels in old texts sometimes leads to confusion	9
2. Disputes about the biblical date of the “creation of the world” did not stop until the middle of the XVIII century	10
3. In the XVII–XVIII centuries, many understood the Russian and world history in a different way	10
4. Important parallelism between events described in the Bible and events of mediaeval Europe and Asia	11
5. How deep is it possible to descend to the past in small steps on the ladder of chronicles built of steps?	15
6. About terminology	19
7. Psychological notes	19
Chapter 2	History of Manuscripts and Bible Publications
1. What is a biblical canon. Why during the Middle Ages, the Church forbids the laymen from reading the Bible?	21
2. Manuscripts of the Bible	23
2.1. Greek Bible manuscripts. Tischendorf’s story	23
2.2. Hebrew Bible manuscripts	27
2.3. Slavic Bible manuscripts	34
2.4. The beginning of the XVII century as an impenetrable wall and a distorting prism in documented history	45
2.5. The Vatican Library	46
2.6. Council of Trent of the XVI century and the Bible. Destruction of “wrong” books	47
2.7. Latin Bible manuscripts	49
3. The first printed Bible	50

Chapter 3 Events of the XII century of the New Era in the New Testament. Adoration of the Magi and the Baptism of Russia

1. Golden sarcophagus with the relics of the three Gospel Magi in the Cologne Cathedral	61
1.1. What the Gospel says about the Magi	61
1.2. What is known today about the history of the Ark with the relics of the Magi	61
1.3. Restorations of the Ark of the Magi	62
1.3.1. Who and why destroyed thirty-six golden figures on the sarcophagus?	63
1.3.2. Why swap the figures in the first and third rows and change their names?	68
1.3.3. “Restoration” of the main, front wall of the Ark	69
1.4. Mediaeval Emperor Otton, together with the Magi, presents gifts to Jesus Christ	70
1.5. Why one of them is a woman in the early pictures of the Adoration of the Magi?	72
2. Why in the Scaligerian history the names of the three Magi-Kings have been hushed up?	73
3. The Magus-Wizard Valta-King is a hero of both the Old and the New Testament	75
4. Other pictures of the Wizards in the Cologne Cathedral, European churches, and mediaeval paintings	76
5. Why is the King Solomon shown as a woman on the sarcophagus of the Magi and some other ancient images?	83
6. Figure of biblical Aaron—Patriarch with a female body	88
7. The crucifixion of Gero in the Cologne Cathedral	88
8. Russia-Scythia in the New Testament	90
8.1. Who are the Wizard Belshazzar and the woman-Wizard Melchior	90
8.2. Who is the third Wizard Caspar	92
8.3. Western European artists were sometimes confused in Russian words	95
8.4. Jesus Christ is worshipped in Russia-Scythia in the XII century. Great = “Mongolian” conquest in the XIII-XIV century	96
9. Our reconstruction	98
10. Why and when the name of King Herod appeared in the Gospels	99
11. Why is the Ark of the Magi in Cologne?	100
12. The Child Jesus Christ received the worship of the Magi under the banners with a crescent and a star	101
13. The gifts of the Magi are stored to this time on the Holy Mount Afon	103

Chapter 4 Pentateuch. The Biblical Exodus and the conquest of the Promised Land are the Ottoman = Ataman conquest of the XV century

1. General look at the history of the biblical Exodus. Great Egypt of the Bible	105
2. What lands were conquered by the army of Moses? What is biblical Palestine	106
3. Russian-Horde history of the XV century. Split of the Golden Horde	110
4. Biblical Egypt of the Exodus is Russia-Horde of the first half of the XV century	111
4.1. Special position of Egypt in the Bible	111
4.2. What we learn about Egypt from the biblical descriptions of the ten “Plagues of Egypt”	112

4.3. Biblical “Plagues of Egypt” is a reflection of the known period of epidemic and natural disasters in Russia of the first half of the XV century	117
4.4. What is “heavenly manna” and where it fell	118
4.5. Biblical Egypt is Kipchak or Gipchak, that is, Russia-Horde	120
4.6. Magi in the Bible and Magi in Russia	121
4.7. Vegetation of biblical Egypt in the picture of Lucas Cranach, the artist of the XVI century	121
5. The beginning of Moses’ journey	123
5.1. Moses at the Court of the Egyptian Pharaoh	123
5.2. The purpose of Moses’s journey. The first attempt of the “Mongolian” Empire to cope with the focuses of the largest epidemics	124
5.3. The conquest of the Promised Land as an attempt to extirpate the focus of the epidemic	125
5.4. Manna-snow as a source of water in the focus of epidemics	127
5.5. Making bricks in Egypt as a military duty	127
5.6. The quarrel of Moses with Pharaoh	127
5.7. The army of Moses takes the field	128
6. The journey of Moses. Crossing the sea	128
6.1. The Bible: Through the midst of the sea upon the dry land	128
6.2. “Antiquity”: Alexander the Great. Crossing the water as on dry land is another reflection of the Ottoman conquest of the XV century	132
6.3. Russian History: Alexander Nevsky and the Battle on the Ice	134
7. Reflection in the Bible of the appearance of Islam	136
8. To the north or the south did the Israelites go from Egypt to the Promised Land?	138
9. How and with what the army of Israelites = the God’s fighters fought. Fire cannons and muskets	139
9.1. Cavalry. Phalanx. Tribe = military column	139
9.2. Iron chariots = firing cannons	140
9.3. Stone cannonballs	141
9.4. Hornets = muskets	141
10. “Copper serpent” of Moses and fire-shooting cannon-muskets	143
11. Where is the banner of Moses kept today?	145
12. A carriage-mounted cannon in the Russian coats of arms	149
13. Images of guns in mediaeval illustrations to the Bible	151
14. “Ancient” Greek gods defeat the “ancient” Titans by shooting them from cannon muskets	153
15. Huge Russian-Horde cannons of the XVI–XVII century with names and images of the kings of the “antique” Troy	159
16. New Inquisition in Western Europe on the pages of the Bible	168
17. Which countries Moses’s troops passed through	169
18. What “desert” the tribes = columns of Moses walked through for forty years	174
19. Moses—the King of the Saracens	175
20. Where have the Ottomans = Atamans come from, according to the Lutheran Chronograph of 1680	176
21. Where is Moses buried?	177
22. Moses on the pages of the Russian history of the XV century	178
22.1. Who founded the Ottoman Empire	178

22.2. Founder of Kazan Khan Ulug Mehmet and biblical Moses	179
22.3. The Great Prince, King, Autocrat Boris Alexandrovich of Tver and the biblical Moses	180
22.4. What is Tver and the Grand Principality of Tver	181
23. Our reconstruction of the biblical story of Moses. Layer from the XV century	183

Chapter 5 Book of Jesus Navin (Joshua). Continuation of the Ottoman = Ataman conquest under Jesus Navin

1. What does Navin or Navgin mean	184
2. Where Jesus Navin (Joshua) fought	184
3. Why walls of Jericho fell. Biblical Jericho is Czar-Grad	190
4. Ataman = Ottoman conquest of the Promised Land by Joshua is also attributed to the Apostle Jacob	198
4.1. The Holy Apostle James and his burial in the famous Spanish Cathedral of Santiago de Compostela	198
4.2. The Apostle Jacob, as a knight-commander, personally participates in the famous Battle of Clavijo with the “Muslims”	201
4.3. The map of St. Jacob’s pilgrim paths is the military map of the routes of St. Jacob’s = Joshua’s Ataman conquest of the XV–XVI century	203
4.4. Highly expressive map of the conquest of the Apostle Jacob in the Cathedral of Santiago de Compostela	212
4.5. The banner of the Apostle Jacob, with the Russian slant St. Andrew’s cross from branched logs, as one of the symbols of the Ataman conquest of the Promised Land	213
4.6. The stopped sun and the St. Andrew’s cross = the cross of Jacob on the banners of the Ottomans = Atamans as a symbol of Joshua	213
4.7. Other traces of the Horde and Ataman = Ottoman symbols in the Cathedral of Santiago de Compostela	220
5. The grave of Jesus, or Joshua, on the outskirts of Czar-Grad	222
6. Distribution of the conquered lands by Joshua and Alexander the Great	224
7. Precious stone of Joshua and precious stone of Alexander the Great	225
8. Cannons in the army of Alexander the Great	225
9. The relics of Joseph in the army of the God’s fighters = Israelites	227
10. Partition of the land conquered by the Ottomans = Atamans in the XV century. What Russian documents tell about it	227
11. Was Austrian Vienna one of the Horde-Ottoman capitals in the XVI century?	230
11.1. Why the main Christian Cathedral of Vienna was crowned with the Ottoman = Ataman crescent	230
11.2. The joy of release	233
11.3. Ottoman minarets at the Christian cathedrals of Vienna	235
12. Ottoman = Ataman crescent with a star over Europe and Asia of the XIV–XVI centuries	237
12.1. The crescent with a star is the old symbol of the Czar-Grad	237
12.2. The Virgin Mary with Christ is frequently pictured standing or sitting on the crescent	238
12.3. People in Europe worshipped the crescent even without the Virgin Mary and Jesus on it	241

12.4. Ottoman = Ataman crescent on the paintings of Hieronymus Bosch and Albrecht Dürer depicting the Passion of Christ	242
12.5. Ottoman crescent with a star as the coat of arms of the German city of Halle	244
12.6. Ottoman crescent with a star over the mediaeval German city of Cologne	244
12.7. Ottoman crescent over the old town halls of Western European cities— Stockholm and Nuremberg	247
12.8. Order of St. Michael and Order of the Crescent	248
12.9. The Virgin Mary, with the Ottoman crescent on her head, imprinted on the famous cross of Emperor Lothair	248
12.10. Ataman crescent as a symbol of Japanese samurai	248
12.11. Ottoman = Ataman crescent with a star in the “ancient” world	251
13. Why and how in the era of Reformation the Ottoman crescent was altered in Western Europe and its original sense hidden	251
13.1. The rooster on the hairpins of European cathedrals as one of the variants of the Ottoman crescent image	251
13.2. Crescents as half-wheels on some German coats of arms	252
14. Gift of Alexander the Great = Joshua to the slavs at the partition of Europe after the Ottoman = Ataman conquest of the XV century	253
15. How mediaeval authors imagined the story of Alexander the Great in relation to the history of the Slavs	257
16. Ottoman = Ataman crescent and Russian-Horde tamga on Western European mediaeval weapons	259
17. Jubilee pipes in the army of Moses and mediaeval Christian jubilees. The “New Era,” establishing the Christmas on “year zero,” was introduced circa 1582, that is, during the Gregorian Reform	260

Chapter 6 The History of Russia-Horde of the XIV–XVI centuries in the last chapters of the Books of Kings

1. Assyria and Russia	266
1.1. Assyria-Russia on the pages of the Bible	266
1.2. Biblical Babylon is the White Horde or the Volga Horde. And after the Ottoman conquest, Babylon is probably Czar-Grad	268
1.3. Nineveh, the great city = Novgorod the Great	268
1.4. Biblical Syrian Damascus = Russian Moscow	270
2. The Assyrian-Babylonian Czar Nebuchadnezzar is the Russian Czar Ivan the Terrible	271
2.1. Ivan III Vasilyevich the Terrible and Ivan IV Vasilyevich the Terrible as two partial duplicates in Russian history	271
2.2. Kazan as Czar-Grad, and Czar-Grad as Kazan	274
2.3. The mad Nebuchadnezzar and Vasily the Blessed as one of the periods of the reign of Ivan IV the Terrible	275
2.4. In the mediaeval Russian texts, Czar-Grad = Constantinople was sometimes called Jerusalem	277
2.5. The capture of Czar-Grad in 1453, in the epoch of Ivan III the Terrible, is the capture of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar	277

2.6. The Massacre of Novgorod = Yaroslavl in the epoch of Ivan IV the Terrible is the capture of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar	278
2.7. Jerusalem was a placeholder name applied to different cities	278
2.8. The Babylonian captivity and resettlement of the epoch of the XV–XVI centuries	279

Chapter 7 Russian history of the late XVI century and the early XVII century on the pages of the Book of Esther

1. Late origin of the Book of Esther	281
2. The Persian king Artaxerxes and his capital Suza	281
3. The quarrel between Artaxerxes and Queen Vashti	284
4. Choosing the bride for a Persian king	286
5. The new wife of the King Artaxerxes, the foreigner Esther	287
6. The heresy of the Judaizers of the late XV (in fact, XVI) century in Russia and the turmoil it produced in the Moscow state	289
7. Haman, the chief ruler under King Artaxerxes and the enemy of Mordecai and the Judiazers. The edict of Haman and Artaxerxes	291
8. Delivery of the Jews from punishment thanks to Esther and the death of Haman	292
9. The Jews crash their opponents in Russia-Horde and in honor of this establish the Purim holiday	294
10. In what year was the biblical holiday of Purim established	297
11. The International Women's Day of March 8 as a holiday in honor of Esther	298
12. The theme of Esther in European art of the XVII–XIX centuries	299
13. The transformation in the XVI century of Moscow into the capital of Russia is connected with the events described in the Book of Esther	302
14. The victory of the Jews. Mordecai becomes co-ruler of Artaxerxes	303
15. The king Artaxerxes was also called by the names Asver, Assuer, and Ahasuerus	303
16. The end of the Book of Esther	304
17. Why Ivan III had to call foreigners to build the Moscow Kremlin cathedrals	304
18. The appearance of the Russian Bible in the epoch of the heresy of the Judizers. Who wrote it?	305
19. What the biblical Book of Esther passed over in silence	306
20. Russian history of the late XVI century in the biblical Book of Esther	307
20.1. Esther in the epoch of Vasily III in the XVI century and Elena Glinskaya	307
20.2. The “revival” of the heresy of the Judizers in the XVI century and the Reformation	308
20.3. The second appearance of the complete Slavic Bible at the end of the XVI century	309
20.4. The repentance of Ivan IV at the end of the oprichnina and the repentance of Ivan III	312
20.5. Esther and Ivan IV the Terrible in the XVI century	313
21. The end of the oprichnina and the defeat of the Zakharyins in the XVI century. Why did the Romanovs distort the Russian history in the XVII century	314
22. King Artaxerxes and Prince Yuri Dolgoruky	315
23. Transfer of the capital of Russia-Horde to Moscow in the mid-XVI century	316
24. Continuation of the story of Esther in the XVII century. The Great Strife in the Great = “Mongolian” Empire	316

25. Stepan Razin on the pages of the Bible. The defeat of the Russia-Horde	318
26. The original of Esther in the Russian history of the XVI century and a series of her earlier duplicates	319
27. Traces of Esther in Russian history of the early XVII century	323
28. The story of Esther = Elena of Wallachia as described by the “antique” Plutarch	323

Chapter 8 Russian history of the late XVI century on the pages of the Book of Judith

1. Summary of the Book of Judith	327
2. The war of the Assyrian king Nebuchadnezzar with king Arphaxad is the capture of Kazan by Ivan the Terrible	327
3. The attempt of the Western kings to separate from Nebuchadnezzar is the Reformation in Western Europe	328
4. Preparation of the vindictive campaign of the Nebuchadnezzar is the preparation of the Livonian campaign by Ivan the Terrible	329
5. Panic in western countries at the news of the beginning of the Assyrian = Horde-Russian punitive campaign	330
6. The Assyrian invasion of Bethulia is the second Russian invasion of Lithuania, i.e., Western Europe, in the XVI century	331
7. The Assyrian, that is, Russian warlord Holofernes dies at the hand of the woman Judith	331
8. Other traces of biblical Holofernes in the Russian-Lithuanian War of the XVI century	333
8.1. The death of Maluta Skuratov in Lithuania	333
8.2. Olfieriev, the substitute for Maluta Skuratov	333
9. The defeat of Assyria = Russia-Horde in the late XVI century	333
10. “Esther” is a look from inside, and “Judith” is a look from outside at the same events in the “Mongolian” Empire of the late XVI century	335
11. The Biblical traitor Achior is Prince Kurbsky	335
11.1. Biblical story of Achior at the siege of Bethulia	335
11.2. The flight of Prince Andrey Kurbsky to Lithuania	336
11.3. The monologue of the biblical Achior is actually the famous letter of Prince Kurbsky to Ivan the Terrible	337
11.4. The answer of Ivan the Terrible to the traitor Andrey Kurbsky is the answer of the Assyrian Holofernes to the traitor Achior	338
12. The books of Judith and Esther reflect, in particular, the joy of liberation of Western Europe from the “Mongol Yoke”	338
13. Reflection of the story of Esther, i.e. of the Russian history of the XVI century, in the Old Testament Book of Judges	340

Chapter 9 The era of Reformation of the XVI–XVII century as the release of Western Europe from under the power of the Great = “Mongolian” Empire

1. The true meaning of “Reformation.” Who did Western European Reformers really fight against?	343
2. Western European Emperor Charles V is the Assiro-Babylonian Nebuchadnezzar, or Ivan IV the Terrible	346
3. Who were the Habsburgs before Charles V	347

4. The story of Renouncement by the “Fifth King” of his titles and his retirement to monastery is similar to the story of St. Basil the Blessed	349
5. Who was Frederick Barbarossa?	349
6. The struggle of the Fifth King against the Reformation. The collapse of the Great = “Mongol” Empire. Europe breaks free from the “Scottish = Scythian yoke”	352
7. The struggle of the Western European Reformation of the XVI–XVII centuries with the splinters of the Great = “Mongol” Empire. A bright example: the rout of the Cathars in France	354
7.1. Who were the Cathars?	354
7.2. When and from where came the Cathars to Western Europe	356
7.3. What happened further to the Cathars = Scythians in Western Europe	361
7.4. Chronological riddles of the Cathar castles	365
7.5. Count Simon de Monfort is described in the Bible as king Abimelech, and by “ancient” Plutarch as Pyrrhus	368
7.6. A new look at the history of Catholic cathedrals of the south of France of the XIII–XVII centuries	377
7.7. Cathar = Scythian crosses in the Gothic churches of France	379
7.8. The Cathar = Scythian banner on the coats of arms of French and Spanish regions and cities, and on the maps of different countries	382
7.9. Ottoman = Ataman crescent with a star in the seals of Raymond VII, Count of Toulouse	384
7.10. Ottoman = Ataman crescent with a star on the medieval knight and city coats of arms of Western Europe	384
7.11. Why the Cathars were accused of “worship of the Devil”	386
7.12. Brief reconstruction of the history of Cathars	390
8. Reformers rout some “Mongol” imperial temples in France	391
9. “The joy of liberation” spread in some countries of Western Europe in the XVI–XVII century. Medieval propaganda against the Roman Church	394
10. When and where originated the Indo-European languages	397
11. Why in the XVI century the German nobility “went out of mind”	400
12. Why the Russian coat of arms and the coat of arms of Habsburgs coincide	403
13. What singularities appeared in some Catholic churches of Western Europe after the victory of the Reformation?	403
14. Why did Napoleon in the war of 1812 march on Moscow instead of Petersburg	403

Chapter 10 “Restoration” = construction of Jerusalem = Moscow after the Babylonian captivity. Jerusalems: where and how many they were

1. The name Jerusalem was mobile and at different times attributed to different cities	406
2. The foundation of Rome and the Vatican in the late XIV century as the establishment by the Greats = “Mongols” of a branch of Jerusalem in Italy	406
3. Transformation of Moscow into the capital of Russia-Horde in the XVI century as the “restoration” of Jerusalem in Russia-Horde	408
3.1. Moscow was built in the XVI century as a new Jerusalem	408
3.2. The history of the “restoration” of Jerusalem, according to the Bible. Kings Artaxerxes, Cyrus, Darius	410

3.3. The first restoration of Jerusalem in the seventh year of Artaxerxes. Restoration of Kazan in 1554	410
3.4. The Khazar Khaganate, one of the mysteries of mediaeval history	412
4. The Book of Nehemiah. The second restoration/construction of Jerusalem in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes is the construction of Moscow in the XVI century	415
4.1. The construction of Jerusalem under Nehemiah is the construction of the Moscow Kremlin in about 1567	415
4.2. The six fortress gates of the “restored” Jerusalem are the six old gates of the Moscow Kremlin	418
4.3. The Sheep (or Herd) fortress gate of Jerusalem = the Spassky Gate of the Moscow Kremlin	420
4.4. The Spassky Gate of the Moscow Kremlin was also called Jerusalem Gate	420
4.5. The Fish Gate of Jerusalem fortress = the Timofeyevsky Gate of the Moscow Kremlin	420
4.6. The Jerusalem Old Gate = the Nikolsky, or Old Nikolsky, Gate of the Moscow Kremlin	423
4.7. The Dung (Dirty, Putrid) Gate of Jerusalem fortress = the Troitsky (Trinity) Gate of the Moscow Kremlin	423
4.8. The Jerusalem fortress Valley (Dale) Gate = the Borovitsky Gate of the Moscow Kremlin	424
4.9. The Jerusalem fortress Fountain Gate = the Taynitsky Gate of the Moscow Kremlin	424
4.10. The distance between the Valley Gate and the Dirty Gate in Jerusalem. The size of the Sheep Gate	425
4.11. Fortress towers of the “restored” Jerusalem = towers of the Moscow Kremlin	428
4.11.1. Meah and Hananel Towers = Kremlin’s Nabatnaya (Tocsin) and Tsarskaya (Czar’s) Towers	428
4.11.2. The Tower of the Ovens = the Arsenal Tower of the Kremlin	429
4.12. The Dragon Source opposite the Valley Gate in Jerusalem is the Chertoryk River opposite the Borovitsky Gate of the Kremlin	430
4.13. The King’s Garden and the City of David inside the Jerusalem walls = the Czar’s poolside garden and the Czar’s Palace in the Kremlin	431
4.14. Semiramis Gardens in Babylon	435
4.15. The name Babylon in old Moscow	435
4.16. “Wall of leather trade” inside the Jerusalem fortress = the Furriery Chamber of the state treasury in the Kremlin	437
4.17. The tombs of David inside the Jerusalem wall are the Czars’ tombs in the Kremlin’s Cathedral of the Archangel	437
4.18. The “House of the Heroes” and the Fish Gate inside the Jerusalem wall are the House of the Brave, the Armory, and the Timofeyevsky = Fish Gate in the Moscow Kremlin	439
4.19. The armory at the corner of the Jerusalem fortress is the Arsenal at the corner of the Kremlin, close to the Corner Tower	439
4.20. The “House of the High Priest” inside the Jerusalem fortress is the Assumption Cathedral in the Kremlin	441

4.21. The King's House and the "high pillar" near it inside the Jerusalem fortress are the Czar's Palace and the Ivan the Great Bell Tower in the Kremlin	441
4.22. The Horse Gate inside the Jerusalem fortress are the state Argamak (Akhal-Teke) stables in the Borovitsky corner of the Kremlin	444
4.23. A full tour along the Jerusalem wall is a full tour along the wall of the Moscow Kremlin	445
4.24. The Inspection Gate of Jerusalem is the Judicial Prikaz of the Moscow Kremlin, opposite the Troitsky (Trinity) Gate	446
4.25. New unexpected method of dating old Bibles	447
5. When was Moscow built? The foundation of Moscow under Yuri Dolgoruky is the construction of the Kremlin by Ivan IV the Terrible in 1567	448
6. Moscow was built as Jerusalem	453
6.1. The builders of the Moscow Kremlin in the XVI century partially imitated the Kazan or Czar-Grad Kremlin	453
6.2. Strange plans of Moscow in the engravings accompanying the book of Sigismund von Herberstein of the XVI century	454
6.3. Czar-Grad = the gospel Jerusalem as the main symbolic model at the construction of Moscow	456
6.4. Symbolic reproduction of the "Heavenly Jerusalem" at the construction of Moscow in the XVI century	458
6.5. The biblical Book of Nehemiah describes not just the construction of the ideal Jerusalem but the Moscow Kremlin	461
6.6. Moscow as Jerusalem on the cover of the Bible of Czar Alexey Mikhailovich Romanov	463
7. Does the Bible speak about Kuzma Minin and Dmitry Pozharsky?	464
8. The era of the XVI–XVII centuries as the time of the creation of the theory of the origin of peoples from the biblical forefathers	468
9. Why the new Russian capital, built in the XVI century, is called Moscow	471
10. Transformation not earlier of the XVII–XVIII centuries of the village Al-Quds in Palestine into a "restored" Jerusalem	471
11. New Jerusalem of Patriarch Nikon near Moscow	476
12. The defeat of Turkey-Atamania	476
13. History of acquaintance of Europeans with the "holy places" of modern Palestine	477
14. What do the pilgrims visiting today Jerusalem in modern Palestine discover	478

Chapter 11 Who and when created the Bible?

1. Reconstruction of the history of the creation of the modern Bible. Who, where, and when wrote the Pentateuch	479
2. Translation of the Bible from Hebrew to Syrian and Greek languages	484
3. The Bible history in Western Europe	486
4. Mixed languages and Babylonian cooperation	490
5. Old explanation of the name "Russia" as "dispersion" reflexes the Great = "Mongolian" conquest	491
6. Possible origin of the name of Moscow from the words "mix," "mixing"	492

Chapter 12 Biblical King Solomon is Suleiman, and ancient Istanbul is Jerusalem

1. What the Bible tells about King Solomon	493
2. Who appointed Solomon King of Jerusalem	493
3. Seal of Solomon	494
4. When Solomon lived? Biblical Solomon = Sultan Suleiman the Magnificent	495
5. When was the famous temple of Saint Sophia built in Istanbul?	496
6. Why the XV century artist's depiction of the siege of the Czar-Grad by the Turks is considered "wrong"	498
6.1. Temple of Hagia Sophia in the miniature of the XV century	498
6.2. The Kazan dragon on the banner of the Ottomans = Atamans in the picture of the XV century	500
6.3. Saint George on the black banner of the Ottomans = Atamans besieging Czar-Grad	501
6.4. Boats on wheels. Russian Prince Oleg and Ottoman = Ataman Mehmed II	502
7. The Grand Temple of St. Sophia in Czar-Grad is the Temple of Solomon in Jerusalem	503
7.1. The Grand Temple of Sophia, the Little Temple of Sophia, and the Temple of Irina	503
7.2. Why are there no traces of sinking in the ground of St. Sophia	504
7.3. The Grand Sophia as the first Ottomans = Atamans' experience of cyclopic construction	505
7.4. The legend of precious stones	507
7.5. Why does the Sinodal translation of the Bible rename the altar to "davar," and "kyot" to "ark"?	508
7.6. Why does the Sinodal translation of the Bible hide that the Temple of Solomon was built of bricks?	508
7.7. Scaffolding around the Temple of Solomon	509
7.8. Who worked on the construction of the Temple of Solomon—stonecutters or woodcutters?	509
7.9. Why the sultans of the XV–XVII centuries prayed in the temple of Sophia among golden mosaics and icons	511
7.10. Who of the Ottoman = Ataman sultans decorated the Grand Sophia, and with what exactly	512
7.11. Why the Grand Sophia began to be used as a burial vault only in the early XVI century	513
7.12. Suleiman the Great's wife—Russian Roxelana. The wife of king Solomon is the daughter of the Egyptian Pharaoh	515
7.13. Vague memories that Sultan Suleiman in the XVI century actually built a Christian temple	516
7.14. Why did they break and replace the inscriptions on the vaults of the Grand Sophia?	518
8. The Church of Saint Irene and the oldest plan of Czar-Grad	518
9. The dimensions of the biblical Temple of Solomon compared to the dimensions of the Little Sophia and Grand Sophia in Czar-Grad	521
10. Minarets in front of the biblical Temple of Solomon, and minarets in front of St. Sophia	527
11. The mysterious "many waters in the middle of the David's Pillar" in Jerusalem are giant underground reservoirs of mediaeval Istanbul	528

12. “The sea on twelve oxen” of the Temple of Solomon in Jerusalem = the Istanbul water storage cisterns	529
13. On an ancient accident in Jerusalem water tanks during a snowy winter	530
14. The Topkapi Palace in Istanbul on the site of the former Palace of Blachernae	531
15. The Mosque-Church of Mehmed II Conqueror in Istanbul	533
16. Peculiarities of the Egyptian obelisk of Thutmose-Theodosius in Istanbul	534
17. Burnt Column of Constantine in Istanbul	535
18. Suleiman the Magnificent and biblical Solomon—poets, singers of love	536

Annexes

1. Ancient images where the Magus Melchior is a woman	539
2. The composition of the Old and New Testaments, according to the Slavic “Kormchaia” Book of 1620	559
3. The last prophecy of Daniel	560
4. Church-Slavonic quotations, mostly from the Ostrog Bible of 1581	564
5. The Easter tables and the tables of the dates of the first astronomical spring full moons, as per the Gauss formulas.—By G. V. Nosovskiy	585
6. Phoenician writing in the Muslim world. Decoding of the inscription on the trophy Ottoman banner kept in the Vienna Museum	644

Bibliography	649
---------------------------	-----