

Contents

(Chronology 7 = Book II of Chronology 6)

About the Authors	iv
Overview of the seven volumes	v
From the Publishers	vi
Also by Analoly T. Fomenko	vii
Also by Gleb V. Nosovski	viii
Preface by Igor Kurinnoy, Ph.D.	xvii
Chapter 13 Jesus Christ was crucified on the outskirts of Czar-Grad
1. Mount Golgotha of the Gospels Jerusalem is Mount Beykoz in Istanbul	3
2. New Jerusalem near Moscow was built in the XVII century, reproducing, in particular, the “tomb of Jesus” on the Mount Beykoz	11
Chapter 14 Conquest of America in the XV century by the armies of Russia-Horde and Ottomania = Atamania. The ordinary Bible and the Bible of Mormons. Christopher Columbus as biblical Patriarch Noah
1. Our reconstruction and introductory remarks	15
2. Biblical “Flood” as the death of former humanity. Expectation for the “end of the world” in the late XV century	21
3. The Bible of Mormons	23
4. Under the leadership of the great leader Nephi, his people went to the conquest of the Promised Land	25
5. A compass was used in the conquest of the Promised Land	25
6. Apart from the compass, Nephi-Noah had a globe	27
7. The biblical warriors of Nephi-Noah were armed with steel crossbows	28
8. Regular Bible: Noah built an Ark for sailing. Mormon Bible: Nephi built a ship to sail across the ocean	31
9. Regular Bible: Noah’s sailing in the great waters. Mormon Bible: Nephi’s sailing across the great ocean	32
10. The Book of Ether on the sailing through the ocean and the settlement of America by the troops of the Horde	33
10.1. Jared and Jared’s brother	33
10.2. The exodus of Jared-the Horde from Babylon and the dispersion of peoples	34

10.3. Journey of Jared-the Horde through the “desert.” Dezeret bees, stinging snakes, and the brass snake of Moses. Muskets and cannons	34
10.4. Jared-the Horde builds ships to cross the ocean	35
10.5. Jared-the Horde set forth into the ocean onboard the ships “like the Ark of Noah”	35
10.6. The arrival of Jared-the Horde in the promised land	36
11. Opinion of the Mormon Bible commentators on the voyage of Nephi-Noah	38
12. Christopher Columbus, or the crusader Colón	38
12.1. What was the name of Christopher Columbus?	38
12.2. Where and when was Columbus born? When and where he died? Where is he buried?	40
12.3. Have the genuine Columbus voyage journals survived?	40
12.4. The voyage of Nephi-Noah as the exodus of one of the tribes of Israel. This is the exodus of the Jews from Spain at the time of the Crusader (Christ-bearer) Colón	40
12.5. A compass in the hands of Nephi-Noah and of the Crusader (Christ-bearer) Columbus	41
12.6. Fair wind for the ships of Jared the Horde and fair wind for the ships of the Crusader (Christ-bearer) Columbus	42
12.7. Mutiny on the ship of Nephi-Noah is the mutiny on the ship of Crusader Columbus	42
12.8. The “Grand Khan” issue in the story of Crusader Columbus’s voyage	42
13. What did the genuine maps of the first half of the XVI century look like	45
14. What the two-headed eagle means on the mediaeval world maps	47
15. The name of the biblical Noah-Columbus is written on the star maps, and the Bible directly mentions Columbus	48
16. “Most ancient” Babylonian and Sumerian documents call biblical Noah Christopher and “Jesus of the Horde,” pointing to Christopher Columbus of the XV century	50
17. What mountain Ararat did the Ark of biblical Noah land on?	55
18. A Bulgar chronicle of 1680 about the conquest of America and of the whole mediaeval world by the Bulgars	57
19. The Mayan sacred book “Popol Vuh” turns out to be a version of the Bible and refers to the XIV–XVI century events	60
19.1. A brief history of the book Popol Vuh	60
19.2. What means the title of the book Popol Vuh	61
19.3. What means “Quiché Maya”	63
19.4. How the book Popol Vuh , i.e., “the Old Bible,” begins	63
19.5. Where did the Quiché Maya people come from to America	64
19.6. According to the Popol Vuh , Gur-Khan, i.e., Genghis Khan, took part in the biblical creation of the world	65
19.7. The flood as described in the Popol Vuh , and the appearance of the seafarer Columbus in the place of the biblical patriarch Noah	66
19.8. The re-narration of the Popol Vuh story of the creation of the world by two progenitors—the Spanish Gog and the Great Khan of Moscow	67
19.9. The creation of the world and of the first four people, including Columbus	67

19.10. The White = Babylonian Horde headed by Columbus arrives in America and populates it	69
19.11. The American deputation travels back through the ocean to the Catholic Czar to get his authorization to rule over the land of Maya	70
19.12. At the late XVII—early XVIII century, some chroniclers thought that the royal history of Quiché Maya began in 1054 A.D.	71
19.13. Gospel motifs in the Popol Vuh : Nativity of Christ, the Star of Bethlehem, the veneration of the Three Wise Men	72
19.14. Traces of the Horde names remaining in America after its colonization by the Horde	72
20. “Ancient” Maya in America wore the Cossack chalmas	74
21. Why historians declared “wild” the theories of some scientists about the history of population of America	75
22. Close relations between “ancient” America and “ancient” Eurasia did not begin in antiquity, but only in the XIV–XV century	77
23. The mysterious center from which the waves of world migration spread	80
24. Do we have today a correct idea of the history of the Spanish conquest of America in the XVI century?	81
25. The meaning of the words “Conquista” and “reconquista” from the point of view of the new chronology	85
26. The Christian empire of the American Incas	87
27. Large Scythian burial mounds scattered across Eurasia and all North America	89
27.1. The kurgans (mounds) all through the “Mongol” = Great Empire	89
27.2. Scythian burial mounds in America	90
28. Unique drawings. Castañeda, Waldek, Catherwood: traveler testimonies of the early XIX century enlighten us on the history of America of the XIV–XVII centuries	101
29. What did the names of some American peoples initially mean?	108
29.1. The Aztecs (Ostyaks?)	108
29.2. The Caribs (Khrabriye?)	108
29.3. The Escimo, or Inuit, or Ainu	109
29.4. The Muscogee	109
29.5. The Cherokee	110
29.6. The Iroquois	110
29.7. The Pueblo	111
29.8. The distant great king of the American Indians	111
29.9. The defeat of the Indians	111
30. Interesting names on the map of America (allegedly) of 1596	113
31. The grandiose division of the world between Castile and Portugal in the XV–XVI century. What countries bore at that time the names Castile and Portugal	115
Chapter 15 When did Ptolemy’s Geography appear in its modern form	122
Chapter 16 Charlemagne, alias Jesus Navin, and the “Mongolian” conquest of Europe. Aachen Royal Cathedral
1. Charlemagne and the “Mongol” conquest	133
2. Aachen Dome, i.e., the Khan’s House	135

2.1. Restorations	135
2.2. Huge chandelier of Barbarossa in the Khan's House	136
3. The strange story of the discovery of the remains of Charlemagne = the "Mongol" King	137
4. Who was buried in the golden sarcophagus of the "Mongol" King?	138
5. Golden sarcophagus of the Virgin Mary in the Khan's House	142
6. Who is depicted on Lothar's cross?	145

Chapter 17 The Bible and Bulgarian history

1. The nominalia of the mediaeval Bulgarian Khans	146
2. Mediaeval Bulgarian rulers were called Khans or Grand Princes	147
3. The use of the Chinese calendar in the nominalia of the Bulgarian Khans	148
4. The complete nominalia of Bulgarian Khans, Grand Princes, and Kings. Duplicates in the Scaligerian version of Bulgarian history	148
5. General look at the history of Bulgaria from the point of view of the new chronology	152
6. On the meaning of the words "Ottoman" = Ataman and "Turk"	155

Chapter 18 Miscellaneous

1. The Ostrog Bible is the Permian Bible, i.e., Austrian, i.e., East Imperial "Mongol" Bible	157
2. When was the Slavic Skaryna's Bible published	158
3. The Bible in ancient China	161
4. Why the Tigris and the Euphrates, according to some "antique" authors, flow into the Black Sea	162
5. American plants and fruits on the frescoes of the "antique" Pompeii	163
6. The mediaeval date of the 7th Ecumenical Council differs by 500 years from its Scaligerian date	163
7. The "antique" Aristotle, teacher of Alexander the Great, and Aristotele Fioravanti in Moscow of the XV century	163
8. Archaeological Museum of Istanbul	164
8.1. The "antique" world and "antique" culture perished in the late XV century	164
8.2. A tombstone of the alleged VIII century B.C. with Christian crosses	165
8.3. The Novgorodian icon "Our Lady of the Sign" on archaeological monuments of Istanbul	165
9. Possible origin of the names Ioann and Solomon	166
10. On the origins of the words "kostel" = temple and "kastel" = castle	167
11. On gypsies	168
12. A lion of the Russian city of Vladimir on the coats of arms in Europe and America	169
13. The famous mediaeval script invented by Stephen of Perm was the Latin script	170
14. The list of Permian peoples and the St. Stephen's staff	178
15. Jerome Horsey or Yeremey Ulyanov?	179
16. In the XIV–XVI centuries, Western Europe obsequiously looked up at the distant and powerful Czar-Khan	181
16.1. What differs our reconstruction of the history of the XIV–XVI centuries from the Scaligerian version	181

16.2. How Jerome Horsey depicted the political geography of Europe in the XVI century	183
16.3. Where the Slavic language was spoken in the XVI century	183
16.4. How Western Europeans called Czar-Khan	183
17. What was written on the bell that stands in front of the Arkhangel Cathedral of the Moscow Kremlin?	184
18. What title of Czar Ivan Vasilievich was erased from his letter?	187
19. “Ancient” Greek Paris and Helen and Russian Boris and Gleb	188
20. Why the commentators declare “mythical” the city of Jerusalem as painted by Vittore Carpaccio	189
21. What are the famous “seven wonders of the world,” and where they were located	190
21.1. Egyptian pyramids	190
21.2. Hanging Gardens of Babylon	190
21.3. Temple of Artemis at Ephesus	192
21.4. Statue of Zeus at Olympia	193
21.5. Mausoleum at Halicarnassus	194
21.6. Colossus of Rhodes	196
21.7. Lighthouse of Alexandria	197
22. Could Dante Alighieri, allegedly of the XIII–XIV century, read the King James Bible first published in the XVII century?	197
23. Some old pictures depict Moses of the Old Testament worshipping Jesus Christ of the New Testament	197
24. The evangelical Pool of Bethesda was and still is in Sofia, the capital of Bulgaria	200
25. What the word “Hadji” means	203
26. The mysterious Bochim in the Book of Judges is Lacedaemon, i.e., Sparta	205

Chapter 19 Calendar-astronomic dating of the Council of Nicaea and the Nativity of Christ

—By G. V. Nosovskiy

Introduction	207
1. Dating the Council of Nicaea	208
1.1. The Council of Nicaea and Paschalia	208
1.2. What is known today about the Council of Nicaea	209
1.3. What is Paschalia?	209
1.4. The calendar Easter cycles: circle to the Sun and circle to the Moon	210
1.5. The old indiction method of counting years	213
1.6. Table of lunar phases in Paschalia	217
1.7. Church holidays included in the Paschalia	218
1.8. The Scaligerian dating of the Council of Nicaea is contradictory to Paschalia	218
1.9. The history of the creation of the Paschalia calendar and the related riddles	219
1.10. The rules of Easter	220
1.11. The fourth rule	221
1.12. Rough calculation of the date of compilation of the Paschalia	222
1.13. Dating the Paschalia by the essence of determining Easter	222
1.14. Dating by Easter full Moons	223
1.15. Dating by the “Damascene’s hand”	225
1.16. Explicit dating by Matthew Blastares	226
1.17. Summary of the datings of the Council of Nicaea	226

1.18. “First and Second” Ecumenical Council. Canonization of Paschalia	227
1.19. The Gregorian calendar reform	228
1.20. Main conclusions	231
2. Christmas and the beginning of “our era”	231
2.1. History of the question	231
2.2. Calendar “Resurrection conditions”	232
2.3. Dating the Christ Resurrection by the full set of the “Resurrection conditions”	233
2.4. Dating the Resurrection of Christ according to the reduced set of the “Resurrection conditions”	234
2.5. Could Dionysius the Humble live in the VI century A.D?	234
2.6. Discussion	236
2.7. On the stability of the “calendar Resurrection conditions”	237
2.8. On the origin of the “calendar Resurrection conditions”	238
2.9. Why do calendar questions seem “dark” today?	238
3. “The older the better” principle in the Scaligerian history	239
3.1. The extreme dates of Scaligerian history	239
3.2. The equinoxes of Matthew Blastares and the Scaligerian chronology	241
4. Additions	245
4.1. Dating of Easter by the minimum root mean square (RMS) deviation of calendar and astronomic dates of Easter full Moons	245
4.2. What date was appointed for the vernal equinox at the establishment of the Julian calendar by the Council of Nicaea	245
4.3. Dating the Council of Nicaea by the “calendar position” of the equinox	250
4.4. Where the Paschalia boundary of March 21 comes from	250
4.5. “Ancient” Greek Meton lived in the era of the Council of Nicaea	253
4.6. The “First Ecumenical Council of Victors” of 1343	257

Chapter 20 Underground Moscow of the XVI century is the “ancient” Egyptian Labyrinth described by “antique” Herodotus and Strabo

1. Underground Moscow of the XVI century	259
1.1. Great construction of ground and underground Moscow in the XVI century	259
1.2. Archaeological research of Ignatyi Stelletsy	266
1.3. When did people recall about the underground Moscow and what was stored in some of its chambers?	272
1.4. Underground Moscow is still waiting for its explorers	275
2. “Ancient Egyptian” Labyrinth as described by Herodotus	276
3. “Ancient Egyptian” Labyrinth as described by Strabo	280
5. Later and rather poor imitations of the “ancient Egyptian” Labyrinth in other countries, e.g., on the Island of Crete	282
5.1. Why is there no Labyrinth in modern African Egypt? Just its name on a later map	282
5.2. “Labyrinth” on the island of Crete	284
6. “Ancient” Greek legends about the Labyrinth, Minos, and the Minotaur, as reflections of dramatic events of the XVI–XVII century in Russia-Horde	287
7. The construction of what “Tower of Babel” is described in the Bible?	291

Chapter 21 The biblical Book of Daniel describes the dramatic events from the story of Esther in Russia-Horde of the second half of the XVI century

1. The biblical Nebuchadnezzar, King of Babylon, as presented in the Book of Daniel, is the Russian-Horde Czar-Khan Ivan IV the Terrible	303
1.1. Synopsis of the Book of Daniel	303
1.2. Babylonian king Nebuchadnezzar is Ivan the Terrible, Russian-Horde Czar-Khan of the XVI century	304
1.3. The sign that announced the death of Belshazzar, the king of Babylon, is the comet that appeared right before the death of Ivan IV the Terrible in 1584	306
1.4. The Jerusalem jewels of Nebuchadnezzar requested by Belshazzar for his feast are the sumptuous jewels of Ivan IV the Terrible that he showed to his entourage before his death	312
2. The struggle of the Babylonian priesthood against Daniel and his associates is the struggle of the Orthodox Church against the heresy of the Judaizers in Russia under Ivan IV the Terrible and his phantom reflections, Vasily III and Ivan III the Terrible	313
2.1. The Book of Daniel on the “Story of Esther,” that is, on the spreading of heresy at the court of the Russian-Horde Khan in the XVI century	313
2.2. The three Jews thrown in a blazing furnace are the three main heretics burned in a cage in Moscow in the epoch of the struggle against the heresy of the Judaizers	317
2.3. The favorable attitude of the Book of Daniel to Daniel and his Jewish companions contrasts with the negative position of the Orthodox Church to the heresy of the Judaizers in Russia	323
3. What known personality of Russian history of the XVI century is described in the Bible under the name of Daniel?	324
4. What lions, and why didn’t they touch Daniel?	328
5. The Book of Daniel and the New Testament Apocalypse are written in a similar style characteristic of the general literary school of the XVI century	330
6. The story of Esther of the XVI century and the story of Susanna in the Book of Daniel	331
7. Staged church performances picturing the “burning of three youths” were introduced in Russia exactly in the XVI century	336
8. Apocalyptic visions in the Book of Daniel	338

Annexes

1. Ancient images where the Magus Melchior is a woman	345
2. The composition of the Old and New Testaments, according to the Slavic “Kormchaia” Book of 1620	365
3. The last prophecy of Daniel	366
4. Church-Slavonic quotations, mostly from the Ostrog Bible of 1581	370
5. The Easter tables and the tables of the dates of the first astronomical spring full moons, as per the Gauss formulas.—By G. V. Nosovskiy	391
6. Phoenician writing in the Muslim world. Decoding of the inscription on the trophy Ottoman banner kept in the Vienna Museum	450
7. Interesting fragments of old texts	455

8. When lived Niccolò Machiavelli and what he really wrote in his Prince	460
9. Travels of Sir Jerome Horsey	464
10. Of the Russe Common Wealth.— The treatise by Dr. Giles Fletcher	533
The complete bibliography to the seven volumes	615